The successful company Dosniha, based in Mallorca, announces the distribution of the Merkur Magic and the Wins Unlimited of the German-based company Merkur Gaming, a subsidiary of the family-owned Gauselmann Group, in the Spanish territory.

Therewith, Merkur Gaming strengthens its position in the Spanish market backing on collaboration with a company that always focuses on taking front rank. Regarding the actual economic difficulties the Spanish market is facing, forming a trustworthy alliance is an important step reinforcing both Merkur Gaming's and Dosniha's presence.

All products of Merkur Gaming are developed to fulfill client's demands and needs by thoroughly analyzing the gaming culture and the local gaming laws on each particular market. German quality with over 50 years of experience and premium products for high-class entertainment and unlimited pleasure, this is what Merkur Gaming stands for.

The promising collaboration benefits from the high-class products of Merkur Gaming on the one hand as well as from Dosniha's excellent market knowledge and long-term experience in operating amusement arcades in Mallorca for more than 30 years on the other hand.

Manuel Torres, Sales Director at Dosniha, who will be responsible for spreading the high quality products all over the country and creating a solid base to build on: "This collaboration was established to provide the Spanish market with Merkurs' top performing gaming machines and equipments in accordance with our best service in sales and technical support."

Mr. Carlos Chacón, CEO at Dosniha, adds: "This means a breath of fresh air for a market in need of changes! Let's give a warm welcome to the Merkur Magic and the Wins Unlimited to Dosniha's existing product family."
